

James 4:13

Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there, doing business and making money.”

REV. 14:6

James 4:14

Yet you do not even know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

REV. 14:6

James 4:15

Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wishes, we will live and do this or that.”

REV. 14:6

James 4:16-17

As it is, you boast in your arrogance; all such boasting is evil. 17 Anyone, then, who knows the right thing to do and fails to do it commits sin.

When Geopolitics Meets Global Supply Chains

Additionally, the strait closure raises the risk of wartime miscalculation.

“We haven’t seen a disruption on this scale since the tanker wars of the late 1980s,” said Larry Rubin, associate professor in the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs. Gulf states’ dependence on the strait constrains both regional actors and U.S. strategy, raising risks around crisis decision-making.

REV. 14:6

Even if the strait reopens, higher costs and slow restart timelines mean the system will not snap back. Experts suggest that when headlines have moved on from this disruption, it will still be shaping prices across the economy.

Matthew 24:7-8

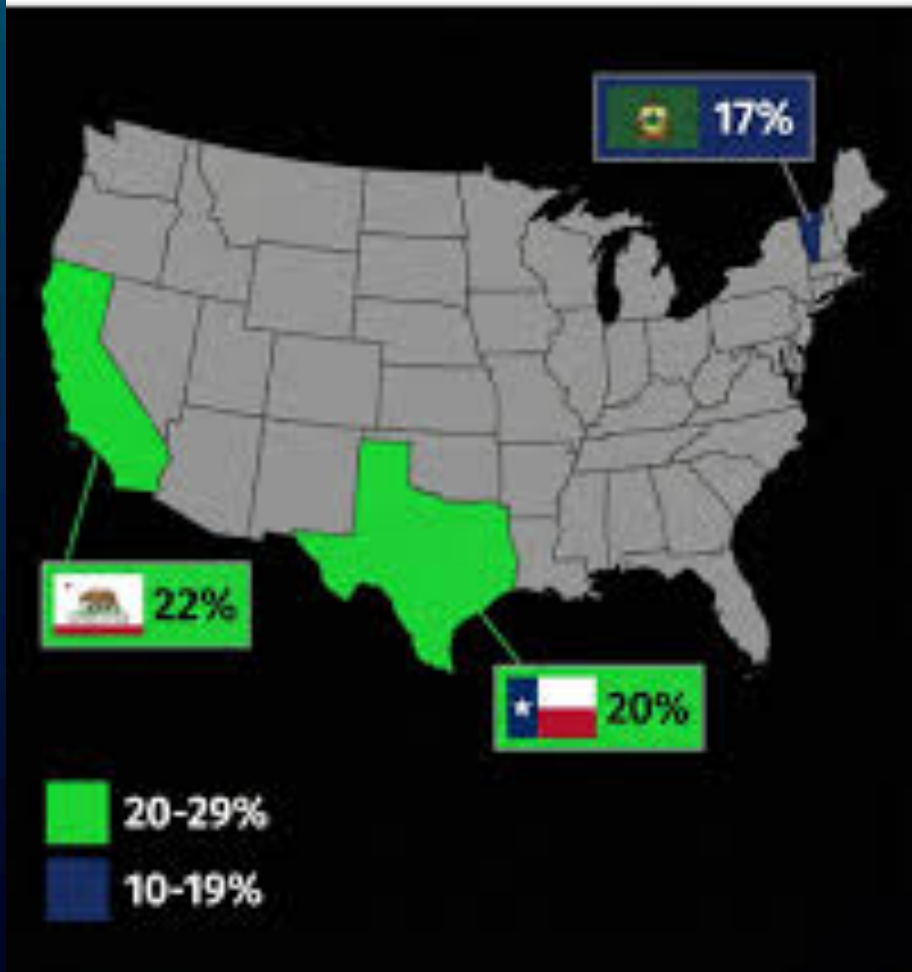

For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places: 8 all this is but the beginning of the birth pangs.
